St. Peters Idol Winners

St. Peters, MO - April 21, 2008 - And the Winners are.....

The Olde Tyme Picnic Committee and Butch Wax and the Hollywood's Band are working together to celebrate the bands 20 year association with the picnic. "We wanted to stage an event that would draw some attention to this year's event what better way than a local singing competition," said Steve Martinez, Chairman of the Olde Tyme Picnic. The following singers battled and won a fierce competition to give them the opportunity to sing in front of the band for the final selection on April 24, at Twisters (8PM). Immediately following the sing off, Butch Wax and the Hollywood's band will play.

This year's picnic will be held on June 13 and 14 in Olde Town Park in St. Peters. Fireworks will again be featured on Friday night, along with live entertainment, food and games booths, carnival, beer garden, old engine display and a Tractor Pull. Saturday will feature a parade with honorary chairs: Butch Wax and the Hollywood's, and retired 1st Lt. George D. Newell, US Army. Newell served in Vietnam and receive the Bronze Star and is now the chairman of Mo. Association of Veterans Organizations, Missouri State Council of the Vietnam Veterans of America and national VVA Government Affairs Committee. Parade entry is free for non profits and veteran groups and only $10 for all others. It will start at 9AM at Mid Rivers Mall and head north on Mid Rivers, across Highway 70 and through Old Town St. Peters, ending at Old Town Park. On Saturday bring the family up close and personal to a Clydesdale from Anheuser Busch, the food and games booths, carnival, beer garden, crafts, corporate booths, old engine display, a horse show, and antique tractor pull. The evening's event will end with a special performance by the band along with our very own St. Peters Idol winner. For more information: www.oldetownpicnic.com.
